

Grant Eligibility

As a matter of policy, the Foundation does not provide financial support to individuals, nor can the Foundation grant be used for funding physical infrastructure such as buildings or endowments. Additionally, the Foundation does not award undergraduate scholarships or make grants for purely personal needs. Support for graduate and postgraduate fellowships is generally provided through grants to universities and other beneficiary organizations, which are responsible for the selection of recipients.