

EVALUATION SPECIALIST

The African Capacity Building Foundation (ACBF) is an international development funding institution established through the collaborative efforts of three major multilateral institutions, namely the African Development Bank (AfDB), the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and the World Bank (IBRD). Other sponsors of ACBF include the International Monetary Fund (IMF) as well as many African and non-African governments. ACBF is based in Harare, Zimbabwe, and currently finances Projects and Programmes in 40 African countries and supports 26 regional organizations and initiatives.

ACBF established an Operations Monitoring and Evaluation Department (OED) in 2008. The new department is currently developing a roster of evaluators for consultancy to conduct evaluation studies for projects and programs supported by the Foundation. Qualified evaluators with experience in Results-based evaluation of capacity development should submit their comprehensive curriculum vitae electronically to the Foundation. Submission should be received by June 15, 2009 at the address below:
